The DIMMER VIEW

by Max Goodwin

Something for the Youngsters

Suffer unto me little children— That admonition has a new source. It now comes from the government. Between the time it was first uttered and now, there was the Shrine.

The Shrine is a Masonic organization whose major charity is the care and treatment of crippled children and those who have been severely burned. Those unable to pay are prime patients for the Shrine's 19 crippled children's hospitals and 3 burn centers.

A claim to fame is that the organization's efforts have produced many of the world's famed orthopedic and burn treatment experts who are responsible for thousands of handicapped and crippled children now leading normal, productive lives following treatment.

Why, you may ask, is this general knowledge being reported here and at this time?

The reply is two-fold. One is that the Imperial Potentate of all Shrine Temples in North America made an official visit Saturday to San Diego with San Diego's Al Bahr Shrine as the host.

Peter Val Preda, Imperial Potentate, a Vermont banker and former public official visited here to re-affirm the huge organization's dedication to hurt children. Val Preda is titular head of a million Shriners in the U.S., Canada and Mexico. The Shriners mission and real purpose is the operation and maintenance of their Shriner Hospitals for crippled and burned children. The get-together was at the Kona Kai Club on Shelter Island.

The other part of reply has to do with the magnificent effort. Shriners are known for their pageantry and parade. But at the heart of the organization is children... crippled, handicapped or burned... and poor.

That is why all of their effort is toward keeping in operation these citadels of mercy—where no child, color, creed, or national origin—will be turned away. Neither is ability to pay a criterion.

Not only do these hospitals and their highly skilled doctors work at correcting the deficiency of these children, but they bring them back into society following sophisticated cosmetic surgery where needed.

That is why these red-fuzzed members walk tall. They know that their charity is reflected in the thousands of normal youngsters who once faced a lifetime of physical and mental handicaps.

But there are bugs in the otherwise Elysian garden. Medicare has all but removed freedom of choice from most victims. Patients still get good treatment in most hospitals but the Shrine centers are something else.

Shrine hospitals are operated exclusively for care and treatment of children. The medicos are trained specifically in the treatment and correction of tragic childhood ailments. Such trained personnel is not constantly available at many other medical facilities.

So what do these Shriners do? They now go out and solicit patronage for their cost-free medical care centers. What a pity!

At the Kona Kai visitation was Henry Goldy, former Lemon Grove restaurateur (Michael's) who has attracted attention over the years for his work with unfortunate kids. He is past potentate of Al Bahr Shrine.

"We have staffed burn and crippled departments of many hospitals with doctors trained at Shrine Centers," he said.

There was Glenn C. Corey, current Al Bahr Shrine potentate who is likewise concerned about the plight of burned and crippled youngsters.

"What a pity that these youngsters do not get treatment designed specifically for them at Shrine facilities. It costs the patient not the public nothing."

There was Bill Rife of Lemon Grove, the official recorder of the organization, who nodded affirmatively as facts and figures were announced.

Last week an El Cajon youngster was flown to the Shrine Burn Center at Galveston, Texas where he is now recuperating from burns over 87 per cent of his body. He'll need plastic surgery, and he'll also get that—free. The prognosis is good. Why Galveston? It has the nation's most sophisticated burn-scientists and equipment.

Many hospital burn centers around the U.S. are now staffed by doctors who received their training at the 3 Shrine Burn Centers.

Doctors, world-wide, including those from iron-curtain countries, intern at Shrine Burn Centers. Another Shrine free service. Keeping the center going is costly—now $38 million a year and the cost increases about $3 million each year.

The credit Shriners get for whatever sacrifices they may make for their medical center projects is the praise that comes from the happy families whose youngsters have been cared for by the fezz group. (Photo Page 6)

Infant Dies From Injuries Sustained in Accident

Two year old Elizabeth Riterbush died Tuesday afternoon at University Hospital from injuries sustained Sunday in a traffic accident in Spring Valley.

The infant was swept from a jeep she and her grandmother were riding when the vehicle plunged into the swift moving waters of a drainage ditch along Spring Valley's Sweetwater road.

The little girl was riding in a jeep driven by her grandmother, Mrs. Cona M. Miner of 8939 Frederick dr., Spring Valley when it skidded on rain soaked Sweetwater rd. and overturned into the flooded drainage canal.

California Highway Patrol Officer J. Sikora reported the vehicle hit some standing water on the street, flipped and landed upside down in the ditch approximately 200 feet north of the intersection of Sweetwater and Spring Vista Way.

The infant fell from the jeep and was caught up in the current. She was found nearly and mile away and pulled from the water near the intersection of Jamacha and Sweetwater rds.

CHP estimated the water in the ditch to be from three to four feet deep.

Mrs. Miner, 42, the grandmother, was pulled from the current by unidentified witnesses some 200 yards downstream. She is listed in good condition in University Hospital with broken legs and ribs.

Three other young passengers in the vehicle were rescued by eye witnesses and taken for treatment to Paradise Valley Hospital.

County Tax Bite Tops $1½ Billion

S.D. County residents are looking at a half billion dollar tax obligation.

A proposed 1977-78 budget totaling $516,889,221 has been presented to the board of supervisors by David K. Speer, County chief administrative officer (CAO). Supervisors are scheduled to consider the proposed budget and set public hearing dates today.

The proposed budget is balanced and was developed in conformance with guidelines set by the Board of Supervisors, a letter from Speer accompanying the document said.

According to the CAO, consistent with the Board's direction, the proposed budget would hold secured property tax revenues at the same level as in the current fiscal year.

"The proposed budget assumes a 20 per cent increase in assessed valuation. If your Board's adopted budget conforms to your goal of holding secured property tax revenues to the current level, this will result in a tax rate decrease in excess of 40 cents," Speer reported.

Guidelines Laid

Supervisors had previously set certain guidelines to be used by Speer and county staff in developing the budget. The guidelines included the provision that salaries and benefits for County employees be calculated on 1976-77 levels and that the budget be based on financing that would not increase the amount of funding from the local property tax base.

In addition, Supervisors directed that no new programs be considered unless they are mandated by law; approved by the Board during 1976-77, or at least 75 per cent of the total costs are offset by earned revenues or offset by reduction in related programs.

The Board also directed that the budgets for services and supplies be limited to the 1976-77 budgeted levels, except for telephone, insurance, utilities, and other charges.

According to Speer's report, the proposed budget is 14 per cent higher than the current year's $453.1 million.

Increases

The principal elements of the increase are: $6 million for full-year funding of CETA, a federally-funded jobs program fully offset by federal revenues; $3.6 million for housing and community development, fully offset by federal revenues; $8 million for advanced funding of regional centers, fully offset by revenues from Joint Powers or Redevelopment; $5.6 million for special funds, principally roads, which is primarily a correction to the prior budget and $17.5 million for welfare aid costs, a mandated activity ($3.9 million of this increase will be borne by local revenues).

See 10% Unemployment

A further assumption is that regional unemployment will continue to be much higher than the national average; a 10 per cent unemployment rate will persist during the budget year.

The County is also assuming that federal and State funding for health and welfare programs will continue at current levels and that inflation will continue at an annual rate of approximately six per cent.

Chacon Rep Here

Feds Barely Cough Up Money For Program

The forms are in the mail to the federal Government from the Lemon Grove School Board for start-up monies for the Equal Education for all Handicapped Act which becomes effective this fall. The district will receive about $10,000 toward the program.

Assistant Superintendent Jim Justeson said in Tuesday night's School Board meeting his five year projections for funding of the program were set at nearly $160,000.

"I wouldn't stand by that projection five years from now because we don't know what all this is going to require," said Justeson. "None of this has been clarified. The program will grow about three times and I'm sure there is going to be a pile of papers in Sacramento."

Mt. Miguel Pool Wins $25,000 From L.G. Parkland Funds

The Lemon Grove City Council Thursday night was told that there was an $11½ million dollars in work necessary to bring its 8 miles of drainage to a "high-urban level." That is likened to buying a new car with air conditioning and power steering, one source said.

$7 million of the total would go for improving the Imperial-Federal elements which includes a long drainage ditch from Main st. to Massachusetts and beyond. Most of it is a half-block north of Broadway at the rear of most of the business operations—many of which are flooded when the rains are heavy as they were earlier this week.

Jerry Bail, principal civil engineer, S.D. County Flood Control Section, said that some of the funds for flood work would come from federal grants under the direction of the U.S. Corps of Engineers.

Part of the work might be done by the county if Flood Control Commissioners of Zone 3 recommend it. Each city has a representative on the commission in his city's zone but none has been named for Lemon Grove so far.

The council agreed Thursday to recommend to the board of supervisors to disperse some of the $62,000 in FLO funds. That fund represents charges made against developers for park and recreation use when they construct residential projects in a community.

The Park Lands Funds requests approved Thursday were $25,000 for the swimming pool at Mt. Miguel High school and $10,000 for lights at the L.G. Junior High school playing field. The council agreed also to ask the board of supervisors not to distribute any other PLO funds without the consent of the council. The Mt. Miguel transfer of funds is contingent upon the assurance that the council would be given a voice in the joint powers agreement by which PLO funds would be transferred to Mt. Miguel.

The council turned down a request for $8,700 for adding a fence to the Alton st. park because, it was agreed, a fence would not alleviate the problem there. A $12,000 Youth Center beautification request was held up for further study. Part of the thinking probably was that the Youth Center,

MR. VOLUNTEER — Emerson Morris has been cited by the San Diego County United Way for logging over 200 hours of volunteer service to the organization. He received the award at a banquet recently.

S.V. Fire Officials To Carry Sidearms

Spring Valley Fire Marshal Orville Williamson has requested firearms for himself and his inspectors due to the hazard that exists when they are investigating fires in the middle of the night.

After the sheriff and firefighters have left, it places the marshal and investigator in a dangerous position Captain Williamson reported. Incidents, where emotional persons were involved, prompted the request, he said.

Alpine, Lakeside, Santee and El Cajon have armed marshals.

Lemon Grove does not. L.G. Fire Chief Bob Adams said he does not contemplate requesting arms.

"We call the sheriff by radio and get professional protection," he said. Chief Adams said that he has called for help in the past and the response was timely and effective.

In Spring Valley, the board of directors voted unanimously for arming the men and approved the purchase of two .38 calibre revolvers with 2-inch barrels.

Storm Total 2.4"

The early Spring rainstorm which started on May 15 and left rain every day through May 10, produced 2.47 inches to this season's total.

Total for season to date is 11.86 inches.

Last year, same date, the total was 10.05 inches.

Final Vote Set For July

VdO Plan Prominades By Planning Officials

Chances are very good the citizens of Spring Valley will have their community plan as they want it, will have a local governing body (the Citizens Executive Committee) to maintain it, and become part of the county general plan by this July 11.

The San Diego Integrated Planning Office have tentatively given the nod to the plan and will make it official by a vote expected sometime next week.

Chairman of the Citizens Executive Committee for Valley de Oro Community Plan C. David Herring said the Integrated Planning Office, despite some staff recommendations, sided totally with the plan as amended by the citizens Committee.

"On those issues where there was disagreement between the county staff and the Citizens Executive Committee," said Herring, "the Integrated Planning Office voted 99 per cent in our favor. We are very, very happy with the vote."

"I am thrilled the planning office deferred to the citizens committee the changes made," he continued. "They relied almost entirely on our recommendations."

Issue Ironed Out

A break for the Valley de Oro Plan came April 27 when the Citizen Executive Committee voted to allow the owner of Dictionary Hill, Ralph Chapman, to develop a restaurant atop the hill.

The committee did mandate however the restaurant meet certain specifications. Among those were,

—a limit on the size to 15,

000 square feet, —to have significant buffering around it either by trees or shrubs, —required roadwork to be done at developer's expense. —and made provision for at least 2.5 acres atop the hill for recreational uses.

Herring said the controversy brewed over Dictionary Hill because the CEC had not given sufficient information to the Integrated Planning Office on the hill's future.

"They sent the plan back to us at my request," Herring continued, "and I believe we managed to iron out these issues successfully."

Also Back In Plan

Herring said the possibility of policy I-1 which mandates the continuance of the Citizens Executive Committee as an advisory council to planning officials and the Board of Supervisors was "pretty good."

He explained the plan now carries policy I-1 and it will take an item veto by the Supervisors to keep it from implementation. The Supervisors are expected to rule on that phase of the plan sometime next week.

"The implementation of policy I-1, our advice and consent policy was run through the planning office staff. They voted against it. But the planning office in their final vote put it back in," Herring explained.

Next Up For The Plan

The final hurdle for the Valley de Oro Community Plan comes at 7:30 p.m. July 11 in the gymnasium of Monte Vista High School.

What is a City?

Functions of Government . . . Part 2

Last week this column discussed Building, Finance and Fire Departments. Here are more:

PARKS & RECREATION DEPARTMENT

With the increase in the leisure time of citizens in California cities, the establishment of Park and Recreation Departments has grown in municipal government.

This department in many cities has two interrelated functions, the maintenance of city parks and conducting organized recreational activities for all age groups within the city.

This department, often in cooperation with the schools, conducts year-around sports, games and crafts, as well as social and cultural programs for the enjoyment of citizens.

PLANNING DEPARTMENT

The Planning Department acts as a technical staff advisor to the city council, planning commission and city manager on all planning matters.

Most planning activities are processed within the Planning Department.

However, other activities require review and decision by a planning commission or zoning board. Many of the decisions referred to planning commissions are zone changes, variances from present zoning within the city, conditional use permits, plot plans, lot splits and many others.

Usually, a Planning Department is divided into two main categories: advance planning concerns the preparation and maintenance of a long-range and comprehensive general plan to provide guidance for the physical development of a city.

Current planning relates to the immediate plans for physical improvement and concerns processing of applications for zoning and subdivisions.

Also, it involves department coordination with the building department and business license division.

Perhaps no other function of local government impinges upon so many citizens as that of zoning and zoning administration, and certainly this function can cause city council members many headaches.

POLICE DEPARTMENT

A Police Department's basic responsibility is to protect and serve the public and the property within the city's boundaries.

Some of the broad areas of service provided by the Police Department include: the prevention of crime, eradicating the causes, suppression of crime, lowering of incidences, apprehension of criminals, and effective rehabilitation when possible.

Generally, the organization of a Police Department consists of four basic divisions: administration, service, investigation and uniform patrol. A Police Department maintains a 24-hour watch to deter, prevent and apprehend criminals.

It regulates traffic, assists in the event of any disaster and provides a variety of information and service to the general public.

The present day police officer received extensive training in the scientific methods of his work. Many police officers working for municipal government have received degrees in Police Science from universities and colleges.

IPO Cuts $$$, Staff In Budget Reduction

The County's Integrated Planning Office submitted a reduced budget in this year's record spending program being studied presently by the County Board of Supervisors.

The 1976-77 budget was $2,419,000. This year the request is for $2,375,000.

A reduction in both staff and dollars is planned by Neil Dunham, IPO director.

In terms of labor years the reduction will be to 92. Last year the department produced 97 years.

According to Dunham, the reduction was due primarily to utilizing material generated by other agencies and a Comprehensive Planning Organization (CPO) a regional but tangent level of government.

"We take a good look at CPO's programs each year and avert working the same areas as it does. It is an answer to those who complain that there is a duplication of effort in government today," he said.

IPO views planning on a county (unincorporated) level while CPO co-ordinates it county-wide.

This Week's RECIPE

Beef Burgundy Strips

An old piece of Midwestern wisdom holds that the cook eats less when she doesn't have to cook — sampling the wares before they are done is the best part of dining.

BBS is a variation of the classic Beef Bourguignon served in France and is created with tender beef round steak braised in burgundy wine and herbs.

BEEF BURGUNDY STRIPS

2 pounds of beef round steak cut 1/4 inch thick
1/2 cup flour
2 teaspoons salt
1/4 teaspoon pepper
3 tablespoons beef drippings
2 beef bouillon cubes
1 cup boiling water
12 small (one inch) onions
1 cup burgundy wine
2 tablespoons catsup
1 small bay leaf
1/2 teaspoon thyme
1/2 teaspoon garlic powder
1/2 pound halved mushrooms

Chill or partially freeze two pounds of beef round steak cut 3/4 inch thick. Cut into strips 1/8 inch thick and two inches long. Combine 1/3 cup, two teaspoons salt and 1/4 teaspoon pepper; dredge steak strips and brown in 3 tablespoons of drippings.

Pour off drippings. Dissolve two beef bouillon cubes in one cup boiling water and add to meat. Add 12 small (one inch) onions, 1 cup Burgundy wine, 2 tablespoons catsup, one small bay leaf, 1/2 teaspoon thyme, and 1/8 teaspoon garlic powder.

Cover tightly and cook slowly for 45 minutes. Add 1/2 pound halved mushrooms and cook, covered, another 15 minutes or until meat is tender. Remove bay leaf.

Thicken cooking liquid with flour, if desired. Serve over hot rice or noodles. Sprinkle with chopped parsley. Makes six to eight servings.

Cold' Water Laundering Brings Infection Hazard

DAVIS — Because of the current emphasis on conservation more and more householders are using cold water for their laundry as a way to save energy.

But this may increase the possibility of harmful bacteria remaining on clothes, towels, or sheets. This is especially important if there is an illness in the family or if laundry facilities are shared with others, such as in laundromats or apartment houses.

The use of disinfectants is the best way to solve this problem, according to Madelyn Williams, Cooperative Extension specialist at the U. of California, Davis.

"Neither the water temperatures nor the detergents used under ordinary home laundering conditions can be relied on to reduce the number of bacteria in fabrics to a safe level," Williams said. "And, of course, even more bacteria survive a cold water laundering."

The potentially harmful bacteria that disinfectants will kill are associated with skin, respiratory, kidney, and other types of infections — including middle ear infections — as well as intestinal disturbances.

Williams said that liquid chlorine in the amounts recommended for bleaching serves well as a disinfectant damage wool, silk, spandex, or for many types of fabrics. "However, chlorine may certain dyed and finished fabrics," she said.

For use on all types of fabrics she recommends other types of disinfectants, including:

—Quaternary disinfectants. These are colorless and odorless compounds available as "sanitizers" from some supermarkets, and from drugstores and janitor's supply houses. Look on the label for "benzalkonium chloride" or "n-akyl dimethyl benzyl ammonium chloride."

—Pine oil disinfectants. These have a characteristic odor and usually the word "pine" in the brand name. They are available in supermarkets, and the label should state that the product contains at least 70 per cent steam-distilled pine oil. (Pine oil disinfectants will not leave an odor on fabrics.)

—Phenolic disinfectants. The phenol (carbolic acid) odor is characteristic of these disinfectants. They are available in supermarkets. Look on the label for "ortho-benzyl-parachlorophenol" or "ortho-phenyl-chlorophenol."

Williams emphasized that all disinfectants should be used according to label directions.

Cow Chip Throwers Record Tops 210 Ft.

Early entry in the Diaper Derby and Cow Chip Throwing Contest is urged by Harry Hofmann, Special Events Director for the 88th annual S. Cal Exposition at Del Mar, June 21 through July 4.

Standing or rolling disqualifies the contestant. Coaxing by parents at the finish line is acceptable, however.

Three preliminary heats will be held June 22, 23 and 30 and 1st, 2nd and 3rd place winners will return July 2, for the championship crawl-off at 1:30 p.m. Preliminary heats will be 4:30 p.m.

The cow chip tossing affair is set for June 22 at 3:30 p.m.

Child Abuse:

Professionals Must Report

(Editor's note: This is the sixth of an eight-part series of articles on the problem of the abused and neglected child, based on "Child Abuse," a pamphlet recently published by the office of State Attorney General Evell J. Younger.)

It is a crime for certain professionals not to report suspected child abuse to the proper authorities. Failure to report by telephone and in writing within 36 hours the observation of a "minor who has physical injury or injuries which appear to have been inflicted upon him by other than accidental means by any person, that the minor has been sexually molested or that (any unjustifiable pain or mental suffering) has been inflicted upon the minor . . . to both the local police authority having jurisdiction and to the juvenile probation department; or in the alternative, either to the county welfare department or to the county health department . . ." is a misdemeanor, punishable by 6 months in jail or a $500 fine or both.

Those professionals required by this law to report are physicians, surgeons, dentists, residents, registered nurses, social workers, interns, podiatrists, chiropractors, religious practitioners, school superintendents, school principals, teachers, licensed day care workers, supervisors of child welfare and attendance, certificated pupil personnel employees (schools), and administrators of summer camps or child care centers.

These persons are not liable for either civil damages or criminal prosecution as a result of making a report, unless it is proven that they made a false report with malice.

Copies of all written reports received by the local police authority (health and welfare departments, in turn, file their reports with the local police) are forwarded to the Child Abuse Program in the Bureau of Identification of the California Department of Justice.

In addition, the State Attorney General has prescribed by regulation a form to be used by professional and medical personnel when reporting suspected child abuse to a designated agency pursuant to Penal Code section 11161.5.

The reporting form has been designed to elicit a sufficient amount of data concerning the suspected child abuse, but at the same time not be unduly burdensome to the reporting medical personnel and thereby discourage its use. It was also designed to be educational as well as instructive for professional medical personnel who infrequently come in contact with possible child abuse.

2 Mikes—Avans & Nixon Fight at Coliseum Fri.

May 13... Black Cat Night... Bad Luck for the careless... Fights at the Coliseum at 15th and E sts. in downtown San Diego.

It's a bad luck match for middleweight veterans Mike Nixon and Mike Avans.

They were scheduled to meet here April 29 but it didn't come off. Nixon got a thumb in his eye during training. That was tough. He attended the fights at the Coliseum but he was unable to see well enough to fight. Avans was ready.

So they substituted World-ranked Julio Gomez, the Chilean champ. He gave Avans a lesson in boxing. Avans lost a split decision. That was tough.

Now the two tough-luck guys finally meet on Friday. One will be the winner but it will be bad news for the other. In any event, it promises to be an exciting bout. Both are punchers and each knows all the tricks. They'll have the crowd on its feet and the cheers will match the boos.

Undercard

Two heavyweights will go 6 rounds on the undercard. Randy Clark of Long Beach will attempt to deck File Moaha of Samoa. Both are big fast and aggressive.

Another 6 rounder — this one with middleweights — has another Samoan, Leni Venisi

Phillies, Mets Next On Padres Tour Agenda

Road competition still fills the schedule for the San Diego Padres as the club prepares to wind up a three-game series in New York with the Mets and then head out for Philadelphia and Chicago.

The Padres are scheduled to wrap things up in the Big Apple with a single game tonight and bus down to Philadelphia for three games with the defending National League Eastern Division champion Phillies, Friday through Sunday, May 13-15. From the City of Brotherly Love it will be off to Chicago for meetings with the Cubs on Monday and Tuesday, May 16-17 before an open date on May 18.

San Diego will be closing out the entire trip, the second longest jaunt of the season on the schedule for the club, with four games in Montreal May 19-22 in the Expos new home, the Olympic Stadium.

For the Padres, it will be a case of paying return engagements with not only the Mets, but the Phillies and Expos as well as all three clubs had paid visits to San Diego during the first week in May. The only new face the club will see on the while trip is the Chicago Cubs.

"I have a feeling we're just now beginning to hit our stride," related Padre manager John McNamara. "Sometimes losing can be a help to your club. There's an old saying about losing being a learning experience and I think there's a lot to be said about that line of thinking."

"We bounced back from an eight-game losing streak against the Phillies in San Diego and played really good baseball in doing so," continued McNamara. "Hopefully, this is an indication that we are now getting the ship in order and will begin moving up in the standings."

Actually, while the Padres have been experiencing some problems on the field, the fast start by the Los Angeles Dodgers has made the club's opening month of the season seem a little more dismal than in actual fact.

Through the first 27 games in 1976, the eventual champion Cincinnati Reds were rolling along with a record of 16-11. Comparatively speaking, if such had been the case this season, the Padres record of 10-17 would have placed them just six games behind. Unfortunately, the Dodgers' wild start has enabled them to open up an 11½ game margin over San Diego. Quite a difference to say the least.

Padres, Phillies Games on Teevee

When the San Diego Padres meet the Philadelphia Phillies this weekend, XETV-Channel 6 viewers again will see the game carried live via Western Union's Westar satellite.

Saturday's contest will be televised beginning at 4:30 p.m., with Sunday's game originating from Philadelphia's Veterans' Stadium at 10:30 a.m.

Channel 6 executive Julian M. Kaufman said the Padres-Phillies coverage is part of a 14-game series of Padres contests the station is programming this season.

Jerry Coleman handles the play-by-play, with Bob Chandler on color.

Kaufman said last month's Padre-Cincinnati series earned Channel 6 a 64 per cent share of the local television audience or nearly two-thirds of all viewers in the county.

Upcoming Padre road games scheduled for Channel 6 live coverage include contests in Los Angeles, San Francisco and again in Cincinnati.

Wheelchair Games Set for May 20-22

The 1977 California Wheelchair Championships is scheduled May 20-22 at State College.

Events include field and track events, table tennis, weight-lifting, swimming and archery.

The event will begin each of the days at 9 a.m. in the area around Peterson Gym.

Bob Beamon is honorary head coach.

Some of the wheelchair victims are nationally rated with those who can use their legs, it is said.

Big Payoff Listed For Riverside 400

The second largest payout for a motor race in the 20-year history of Riverside International Raceway — $162,575 — will be offered to drivers in three races during the NAPA Riverside 400 weekend June 11-12.

The total prize money was published this week in three entry blanks. One was issued by the National Assn. for Stock Car Auto Racing, Inc., in Daytona Beach, Fla., for the NAPA Riverside 400 Winston Cup Grand National on June 12, and two others were mailed over the weekend from the Raceway.

The 400-kilometer (248.9-mile) NAPA Riverside 400 will pay $129,000 to the nation's best stock car drivers, which include Richard Petty, David Pearson, and Cale Yarborough.

The two additional entry blanks were for the Black Gold 200 NASCAR modified race, a preliminary event scheduled for June 11 that will pay drivers of 1960-77 modified stock cars a total of $15,950, and Black Gold's California 150 NASCAR late model sportsman race on June 12, paying $16,625.

The combined three-race purse is topped only by the $171,615 offered last January to drivers in the Winston Western 500 and Permatex 300.

The effect of increasing the NAPA Riverside 400 purse by $5,075, upping the California 150 payout by $5,900 over the amount of 1976 posted awards and creating a new race is positive for West Coast race drivers and car owners, who will receive the largest share of the "new money," according to Raceway president Les Richter.

At Cajon Speedway

SV Racer Seeks Record 5th Win

Gary Crossland hadn't been in victory circle since the last race — an open competition affair — of the 1974 season.

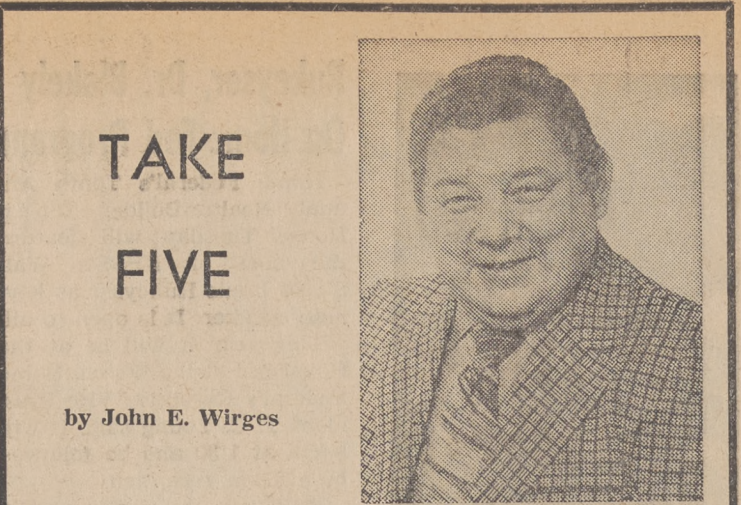

And he probably began to wonder just when he'd get back into that glory spot again.

But Saturday at Cajon Speedway he regained the old touch by beating young Mike Greenwell of El Cajon by a length and a half in the 40-lap non-points super stock car feature.

It was a dandy two-way battle with both cars going across the start-finish line on the 39th lap in a virtual dead-heat.

Crossland was clocked in 12 minutes, 40.81 seconds with his Camaro convertible.

TAKE FIVE

by John E. Wirges

Beauty, say the poets, is in the eye of the beholder. It could be a bird in flight, a child at play, a husband at work or a wife who doesn't get headaches.

Then, there is that hardy band of viewers who see charm, grace and loveliness in the hunker-down serious style of play provided the San Diego Padres this season by Mike Champion.

"He does it all," grins manager John McNamara. "We knew he had the glove and we were hoping he carried enough bat. He's shown that he does."

Mike suffered a mild case of "rockie jitters" early in the season, and, as a matter of fact, still gets the "wimwams" everytime the Padres open a series. But each day he seems to settle in better and look more comfortable patrolling his beat out there between first and second.

He started a mite slow at the plate, but a couple of heavy swinging days in the Padres recent homestand and Mike is up to respectability.

In the two weeks the Padres will be away, visiting such terrors of the East as New York, Philadelphia, Chicago and Montreal, Mike could very well come home over the .250 mark. He seems to be hitting his groove and should be a consistent .290-300 hitter over his career.

Not bad for a kid that didn't get taken until everybody had shot in the June '73 draft. Champion was Bob Fontaine's tab in the second round, David Winfield was the Padre's first round pick. Little did the home folks know then the Padre's right side was being formed.

But Fontaine knew. After a season in Walla Walla, where he was managed by Cliff Ditto, (Only the Padres would put a Ditto in Walla Walla), Fontaine worked out an agreement with an outside club to give Champion experience in an instructional league.

The Padres, it will be remembered, were slow in developing some of the niceties of baseball in those early years. Especially if they cost money. They didn't have an instructional tie-up themselves, but they saw enough in Champion to provide growing space for the guy.

And he did respond. He was signed at 18, played one year in Walla Walla, then jumped to Alexandria in the Double A, Texas League for two campaigns. Then, at the age of 21, played 141 games in the fast moving triple A, Pacific Coast League for the Hawaiian Islanders.

Developing a position player in just four years is considered quite an accomplishment in baseball. Even those richly blessed with skills need time to polish them to professional quality.

A case in point: Maury Wills, who recently closed out a career that saw him serve the L.A. Dodgers for a decade at shortstop, spent nine years in the minor leagues. It used to be that way.

But not Mike Champion. The Padres matched him with Bill Almon, another "can't miss" development, at Hawaii last year in hopes of building a double play team that will last into the 1990's. Barring injury, they seem to have pulled it off.

Champion makes old timers think of Bill Mazeroski, the National League's All-Star second baseman of the late 50's and early 60's. "Maz could do it all," remembers Padre hitting coach Bob Skinner, who played on the same Pittsburgh powerhouse teams with Mazeroski.

"And Mike reminds me so much of him. Mike can run, move, pivot with the double play ball, and hit. And you can see that he'll develop some power as he grows. He'll be hitting 10-15 home runs a year before he gets too far along."

There are those who bemoan the Padres slow start this year but that can happen to anybody, even the powerful Cincinnati Reds. Looking at the bright side, one would have to recognize the Padres as headed for untold league championships. And a Champion named Mike is leading the way.

Head Shave Due Griffin Coach

Coach Noel Mickelsen will have his curly locks clipped from his head May 18 at Grossmont College as his Griffin baseball players won a "bet" from the veteran mentor.

It was a month ago when Mickelsen told his team that he'd "shave his head" if the Griffins could go 5-5 during their final South Coast Conference contests.

By winning Saturday's SCC finale from Orange Coast, 10-3, the Griffins managed to meet that 5-5 standard during the last 10 games of the 1977 season, which means Mickelsen will have to part with his hair.

Grossmont concluded SCC play with a 7-11 record to end the campaign in a three-way tie for fifth place. The Griffins were 16-18-2 versus all-comers.

About Your Health

Alcohol and Medications

People who drink alcohol while taking prescription medications may suffer distressing or even dangerous side effects. That's the warning from California Medical Association.

According to CMA, many different kinds of medications prescribed for a variety of disorders should not be mixed with alcohol. Varying amounts of alcohol will produce different side effects with each person, with the medication and with the dosage.

CMA's Committee on Alcohol and Other Drug Dependence notes there are almost limitless instances in which alcohol can produce problems when used with otherwise safe medications. Some examples are:

- Alcohol plus aspirin may produce internal bleeding.

- Alcohol may induce fainting in a person using some heart or high-bloodpressure medications.

- Alcohol may further weaken the heart of a person who has been prescribed strong diuretics and digitalis for a failing heart.

- Alcohol may cause acute discomfort in persons taking certain antibiotics, an antimalarial drug or antiparasitic medication.

- Alcohol causes an anti-convulsant medication to be less effective.

- Alcohol "doubles" the effect of tranquilizers, sleeping pills, antidepressants and other mood-altering drugs. A person may become so drowsy and confused that judgment is impaired — the dosage may be repeated several times, and the result may be fatal overdose.

For your own safety and comfort, the California Medical Association recommends each time your doctor gives you a prescription for a medication which is new to you, ask whether it is safe for you to drink alcohol while using the drug.

If you are being treated by more than one physician, ask each of them whether the medications they have prescribed for you are safe in combination with the other medications you are now taking.

S.D. Chamber Takes RR Issue to D.C. Officials

The San Diego Chamber of Commerce will take the issue of the San Diego and Arizona Eastern Railroad abandonment to top government officials in Washington.

A delegation from the S.D. Chamber are presently in Washington meeting with officials on the railroad abandonment. The seven member delegation is meeting this week with Senators Alan Cranston and S. I. Hayakawa.

In addition to the railroad issue, the group plans to petition the government for action on building of the Navy Regional Medical Center, change requirements for secondary treatment of sewage, the illegal alien issue, and the tax reform act of 1976.

"We are going to get into some important issues and see if we can get some answers," said Richard G. Capen Jr., Vice President of the Chamber who heads the expedition. "The purpose of this trip is to maintain liaison with key officials and also to seek some needed action . . ."

Supps Reveal Policy On City-Like Services

The new policy of the County Board of Supervisors regarding rapidly developing areas was revealed in a mailer distributed recently under the name of Integrated Planning Office UPDATE.

It may explain the co-operation given too community planning by the board.

It reminds that "communities which grow to require city-like services should have to pay for them because the County isn't in the city business."

"And as a result, the Board will require that all community plans include a timetable which will indicate how large a community can grow before it must seek incorporation, annexation to an adjacent city or formation of a County Service Area (CSA)," was ordered.

The Board, on April 10 reduced the Community Planning Process from its current 20-month time frame to just 12 months and directed that all new Community Plans in the future to include criteria for a set level of development which would automatically trigger an attempt at annexation, incorporation or CSA formation. Such criteria could include a minimum of land developed or a population goal.

The Board said that this criteria should be built into existing Community Plans as they are revised.

Several incorporation attempts have failed in recent years in communities such as Poway and San Diego. Lemon Grove voted to incorporate last month, but only after three prior incorporation elections had failed, it was noted.

The shortened Community Plan time-frame carried specific direction that citizen involvement in the process be kept at the same level, despite the shorter process.

Traffic Deaths Grow As Speed Creeps Up

California's four-month traffic death toll of 1,372 compares with 1,258 for the January-April period last year, CHP area commander Captain C. Douglas said.

The 9.06 per cent increase is proportionate between municipalities and CHP jurisdictional area, Douglas said. On city streets fatalities were up 48 or 9.06 per cent; and in CHP areas they were up 66 or 9.07 per cent.

The Captain said "several factors appear to be contributing to the increase. Traffic volume continues to climb, and speeds have been edging up."

He pointed out that the Highway Patrol's current 55 MPH compliance campaign, being conducted throughout May, "should have an impact on overall vehicle speed averages. Traffic speeds have been creeping upward since early last year, and we hope to reverse that trend with the voluntary compliance effort."

Douglas said that a 9 per cent climb in deaths, if extended throughout 1977, would raise "fatality figures to the 1973 level, when the speed limit was 65. The advantages of restoring and maintaining compliance with the 55 mph limit become obvious."

United Parcel Wins Rate Raise

Approval of a partial general increase in rates for United Parcel Service was granted by the California State Public Utilities Commission on May 6.

The increase will provide additional revenue of $7,984,000 and will produce a rate of return for UPS of 10.1 per cent. Consumer prices will increase from 60 to 68 cents a package plus 2/5 to 4/5 of a cent a pound in S. Cal. areas.

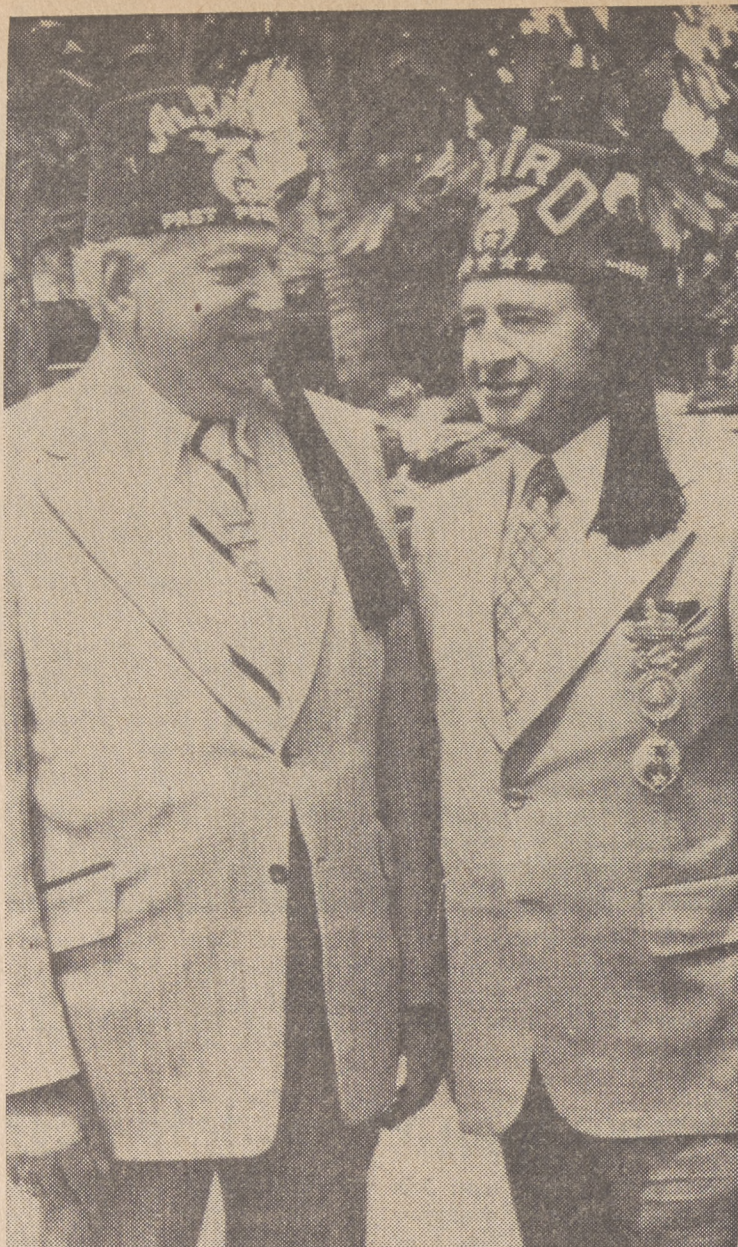

UPS filed an application for an increase on November 12, requesting rates to produce additional revenues of $12,631,533. Public hearing in the matter was held on February 24, with evidence presented by UPS in support of its application.

"The record shows that UPS has experienced increases in contractual wage and fringe benefits and in other operating costs since the last proceeding in which package rates in issue were increased," the PUC said.

Unless rates are adjusted, the Commission added, UPS will be operating at a loss of $2,238,000.

PUC said it recognizes that UPS's operations are labor intensive (rather than capital intensive) inasmuch as wages, fringe benefits and payroll taxes comprise about 75 per cent of total operating expenses. Union the union contracts with its employees, UPS has experienced increases in wages and fringe benefits.

In justifying the partial relief granted, the PUC noted: "The wage contracts provide for yearly increases in wage rates in stated amounts plus cost-of-living increases which are scaled to the Cost of Living Index prepared by the United States Department of Labor. The wage increases now in effect and which will become effective in the test year (1977) are substantial and unless rate relief is promptly accorded, UPS's operation will be conducted at a loss in the test year."

IMPERIAL POTENTATE—Peter Val Preda, right, Imperial Potentate of 180 Shrine Temples (1 million members) paid an official visit to San Diego Sunday. He is chatting with Henry Goldy, past potentate of S.D.'s Al Bahr Shrine. Goldy is a former Lemon Grove restaurateur (Michael's) during a reception at the Kona Kai Club.

Val Preda said government intervention in the medical field now requires Shrine's Crippled Children and Burned Children's hospitals to solicit patients.

Val Preda is a resident of Rutland Vermont. Glenn C. Corey is Potente of Al Bahr Shrine.

Development Maps 'Asked On Three County Projects

The County of San Diego has received a supplement to an environmental impact report (IR) and two extended initial studies for proposed projects in the Jamul, Lemon Grove, and Encinitas areas of the county.

In the Jamul area of the county, a proposed project known as the Beaver Creek development has requested a tentative parcel map for four parcels ranging in size from eight to 16.5 acres. The four parcels located in an LC zone (a temporary zone used until long range planning for area is complete) are southwest of the junction of the Skyline Truck Trail and Lawson Valley road in Jamul.

A proposed project called Berryland Estates has requested a tentative map to subdivide 6.5 acres into 24 lots. This would allow the construction of 24 single family residences and include grading of up to 35 foot cut banks and 25 foot fill banks over the entire project site. The proposed project is located at McKnight and San Pasqual streets in Lemon Grove.

The above projects are available for review only at the County's Environmental Analysis Division, 9150 Chesapeake dr. in San Diego, and at the Ecology Center, 340 Kalmia st. in San Diego.

The Beaver Creek development study is available for review at the El Cajon and Jamul libraries.

The Berryland Estates study is available for review at the Lemon Grove Library.

The supplement to the Encinitas EIR — Flaire Encinitas — is for 148 units on 24.8 acres north of Encinitas Blvd.

The Environmental Review Board meeting for all three projects is tentatively set for May 19. Environmental Review Board telephone is 565-3927.

S.V. Health Center Petitions State Board

SACRAMENTO — The Mount Miguel Covenant Village, 9140 Akard, Spring Valley, has petitioned the California Department of Health for their approval of the construction of a 120 bed skilled nursing facility.

The Covenant Village plans to build the new facility at a cost of over $1 million. The estimated cost of the new structure was set at $1,307,300 in the Notice of Intent to file application for Certificate of Need. The Village filed the document early this month.

Certificates of Need are granted by the state health department for various construction, remodeling, expansion projects, and equipment additions for health care facilities.

V.A. Students To Lose Month In Pay Shift

Students enrolled in Veterans Administration educational programs are reminded that it will be a long time between paydays following receipt of their May 1 allowance check.

Some 1.5 millions veterans, dependents, and service members will have received a notice with their May checks telling them this. Their May check is their last under the VA's prepayment system. Similar notification accompanied the April 1 check.

The Veterans Education and Employment Assistance Act of 1976 eliminated prepayment of monthly allowances for VA trainees, effective June 1. The monthly check for June enrollment will be issued July 1. Subsequent VA checks will follow each additional month of enrollment.

New procedures for advance payment also become effective June 1. Advance payments at the beginning of a school term for the first month, or partial month, plus the following month, will be made only if the student makes the request in writing to the school and the school agrees to process the advance payment. Previously, advance payment was automatic with enrollment.

The student's written request for advance payment must be included with the enrollment certification submitted by the School to the VA.

The enrollment certification must be received by the VA at least 30 days before the start of regular registration. Following receipt of the advance payment, no additional VA check will be mailed for approximately three months because of the elimination of the prepayment provision.

Students who receive advance check in September, covering enrollment through October will not be eligible for an educational payment for November enrollment until December 1.

Disabled veterans enrolled in VA vocational rehabilitation programs are encouraged to contact their VA rehabilitation specialist to discuss whether an advance payment is feasible.

'Fairtest' Title Tested May 3

Admission will be free to the 32nd annual Fairtest of the Fair Beauty Pageant to be held Sunday, May 29, at Al Bahr Temple, 5440 Kearny Mesa rd., according to R. R. Richardson, president of the 22nd Dist. Agricultural Assn., announced. The 22nd Dist. sponsors the S. Cal. Expo at Del Mar.

Spectators can watch the bathing suit judging at 1 p.m. Selection of the Fairtest of the Fair will start at 7 p.m. with the winner expected to be named shortly after 9 p.m. She will succeed Christy Martin of Clairemont.

Following her selection the Fairtest of the Fair, together with Tommy Hernandez, Spanish film actor, who portrays Don Diego, will begin promoting the Expo '77 (June 21 through July 4) immediately by visiting radio, television and newspapers in San Diego, Imperial, Riverside, San Bernardino, Orange and Los Angeles Counties during a two-week period, winding up June 15.

Twenty-six community representatives will compete in the finals. Preliminary contests started in mid-March and will end Saturday, May 21, with the selection of Miss Ramona.

City colleges in Chicago now accept charge cards for students' tuition and fees.

Owner's Dream: 'Leave Dictionary Hill Open'

One of the major issues surrounding the final approval of the Valley de Oro Community Plan involved the dreams of one man — the owner of Dictionary Hill.

Ralph Chapman's dream was to build his house atop the hill originally when he started buying the property in 1946. But relating the mental change he has made in the past 25 years to the citizens of Spring Valley during a meeting of the Valley de Oro Citizen's Committee April 20th at Monte Vista High School, Chapman told his side of the story.

"My father always told me never to build in the lowlands of California," Chapman told the group, "so I thought atop Dictionary Hill with its panoramic 360 degree view of the San Diego area would be a perfect spot."

"I was up there one day and I thought it would be a shame for one family to control the top of that hill. Since then I have sought ways to make it a permanent landmark for the community."

"Many times developers came to me with offers to buy," he continued, "And I always turned them down. I was determined to hold on to it for the public."

More recently, Chapman has sought the advice from a Solana Beach developer named Greg Lauer for ways to make the hill open for the people of Spring Valley. The two came up with the idea for the revolving restaurant for Dictionary Hill.

When the plans for the restaurant leaked out to the citizens, the future of Dictionary Hill seemed as rocky as the slopes themselves.

Concerned citizens, confused, suspicious of developer's plans to change the rural atmosphere of the area began to question Chapman's idea.

The Integrated Planning Office sent back to the Valley de Oro Citizen's Executive Committee the Community Plan for further clarification of the issue.

Chapman, pleading with the citizens told them during the April 20 meeting, "You can't expect a man who has held his property for 30 years, paid taxes on it, and not let him develop it. It discourages you when you think you are trying to do something for your community and they think you have a selfish motive."

Finally, after many months of debate, Chapman, planning officials, and citizens came to an agreement. Dictionary Hill would have a restaurant.

"I am pleased we are able to build the restaurant," Chapman said, "And I am especially pleased we can go ahead with the developer's plans to leave 62 per cent of the hill open for horseback riding, hiking, and picnics."

"It will become a landmark for the community," he continued, "especially with the well operated family-type restaurant back in the Valley de Oro Community Plan."

The top of Dictionary Hill may not see building for at least another four years, Chapman predicted, but he did add he expected construction to be completed by 1981.

"It's going to be a development the community will be proud of," he concluded.

State's Error in Medi-Cal Allows 100,000 to Benefit

A ruling by a State Superior Court judge will allow approximately 105,000 to collect refunds on 13 months worth of Medi-Cal denied them.

Superior Court Judge Irving Perluss ruled last week the state was incorrect in not immediately implementing federal statutes and regulations which granted three-month retroactive Medi-Cal coverage beginning at the time the recipient first filed for it.

The court found the state to be in violation of the federal guidelines during 13 months between July 1, 1973 and August 21, 1974.

The decision now sets in motion county welfare departments to process applications for Medi-Cal recipients who paid for their own health care during that period.

The local office had no idea what the state's mistake would cost.

TV Anchorman Joins S.D. Fed

Award-winning television journalist Dick Carlson, 36, has been named a vice president of San Diego Federal Savings and Loan Assn.

Carlson's appointment was announced by Gordon C. Luce, president and chief executive officer of the San Diego based financial institution.

Carlson has assumed executive responsibilities in the areas of marketing, television communications and community relations said Luce.

Carlson was anchorman of the Evening News on KFMB-TV and host of the weekly broadcast "Carlson & Co." He is a 1975 winner of the coveted Peabody Award, considered the Pulitzer Prize of television.

He is a nominee for two "Emmy" awards by the Hollywood Chapter of the National Academy of TV Arts and Sciences as both writer and director of the NBC special "Hello Again" — with Rod McKuen. He received the California A.P. Award for Investigative Reporting at ceremonies this month in San Diego.

Carlson has also won a 1973 "Emmy" award, five "Golden Mike's", the Los Angeles Press Club's "Grand Award" and the San Diego Press Club Award for Investigative Reporting.

PUC May Give Rate Break To Gas Users

LOS ANGELES — Even before acting to give rate breaks to homeowners who insulate their attics or homes, the California Public Utilities Commission has approved a staff motion to make those breaks, should they come, retroactive as of April 26.

The PUC is still investigating the possibility of requiring utility companies to give special reduced rates to insulated homes.

Carole Kretzer, Information Officer of the PUC said the idea was to encourage homeowners to go ahead and insulate.

"The PUC staff motion was made to encourage anyone who is presently considering such retrofit insulation to proceed now without fear that they will forfeit any economic advantage which might be gained by waiting for the Commission's final order," she said. "Since the level of incentives, if any, will be established in later hearings, the amount is not known at this time."

In-Spot Appeals 'Bust' To State Supreme Court

The owner of Lemon Grove's topless nightclub, In-Spot East, has filed an appeal of the April 18 entertainment license suspension with the California State Supreme Court.

In-Spot East's owner William D. McClelland had his license pulled by the Board of Supervisors April 18 after Sheriff John Duffy convinced the supervisors the license should be grabbed for 65 days.

The Court of Appeals, Fourth Appellate District had issued an opinion to McClelland his proper avenue of appeal was through the local Superior Court.

The Court of Appeals learned last Friday In-Spot's owner went over their heads to the state's highest court when clerks of the Supreme Court call for background on the case.

Court of Appeals Justice Gerald Brown has also issued a statement to McClelland advising him he may not keep his club open while the legal battle is waging. Brown did say although the club could reopen while appeals were being heard.

The Judge called McClelland's request to keep his club open as "premature" and added the only way to "secure a stay of administrative action (keep the club open by shelving the license suspension) is by application to the Superior Court."

"Apparently, McClelland's lawyers didn't believe us," Brown said last Friday after hearing the case was now in the hands of the California Supreme Court.

Counseling Added To Fair Pageant

The 332nd annual Fairest of the Fair Beauty Pageant will take on a new look this year by adding career counseling for the finalists.

Pageant director Doris Boyar said the idea was to enlighten finalists about various careers open to them. These career sessions will be held in three hour sessions at Al Bahr Shrine auditorium.

Serving on the counseling board will be Pat Arthur, a catering sales director for the Westgate Hotel; Bill Seaton, a public relations director for Sea World; Don Rieson, assistant police chief for San Diego; Bill Hastings, public relations director for PSA; Sherry Dark, the owner of John Powers Studio; Reba Merrill, co-host of the Sun Up Show; Lilo Miller, fashion consultant for Saks Fifth Avenue; Sandy Wittman, attorney; and Mary Crosby, talent agency owner.

Continued for the third year will be the essay writing competition. Essays are prepared by the finalists during a pageant rehearsal with the subject matter given at that time. Finalists have one hour to complete their essay and must read them aloud. Essays will be within a two minute limit.

The winner of this essay contest will receive a $50 cash award and a trophy.

Tax Assistance Offered Seniors By Pete Chacon

More than 300,000 senior citizen property tax assistance claim forms for 1977 will be in the mail in the next few days, according to Pete Chacon, Assemblyman, 79th District.

Forms are now being sent directly to citizens over 62 years of age who received property tax assistance payments last year and individuals who already requested that claim forms be sent.

Assistance payments last year totaled almost 55 million dollars; an average of $178.00 per claimant, according to the Franchise Tax Board records.

To qualify, individuals must be California residents, over 62 years of age on January 1, 1977, and must own and occupy their homes from July 1, 1976 through June 30, 1977, and must have less than $12,000.00 household income in 1976.

The filing period for assistance is May 16 through August 31, 1977.

Significant changes have been made in the law during the Legislative Session. One law has modified household to include all persons who reside in the claimants home except minors, qualified students and bona fide renters.

Another law redefines gross income to allow deductions for cash business expenditures which are necessary to realize income. These are explained in detail in the instructions, however, additional information and assistance is available by writing to Senior Citizen Property Tax Assistance, P.O. Box 1588, Sacramento, CA 95807.

Claim forms may also be obtained by writing or calling Chacon's office at 5106 Federal Blvd., Suite 207, San Diego, CA 92105; 263-2148.

Thieves Eye Rec. Vehicles For Vacation

Don't let a thief take his vacation this summer with your recreational vehicle.

That was the warning issued recently by the California Highway Patrol in pointing out that recreational vehicle thefts usually reach a peak in June at the start of the summer vacation season.

The first 3 months of this year 514 recreational vehicles were stolen in the state for an average of 12 a month more than in 1976. But the peak month last year was June, with 567 recreational vehicles stolen.

The No. 1 target of recreational vehicle thieves in the past 15 months has been the Ford pick-up with camper mounted. A close second was the Willys Jeep.

Approximately 80 per cent of the recreational vehicle thefts were reported in the major population areas — Los Angeles, Orange and San Diego counties and the San Francisco Bay Area.

Coast Guard Says Law Makes Boating Safer

Despite record numbers of new boats set to water this year, the Coast Guard has reported boating related deaths have decreased to the lowest level they have been in 12 years.

The Coast Guard reported 1,264 deaths due to boating which is a 14 per cent reduction from 1976.

County Assessor E. C. Williams reported there have been steady increases in the number of boats sailed each year since 1950.

Williams said there were 2,300 boats in San Diego waters in 1950 but that figure jumped to 13,000 by 1955. In 1965 there were 20,000 and currently, 45,000 vessels choke the area.

The Coast Guard attributed the reduction in deaths despite these increase to the 1971 Federal Boat Safety Act which sets construction standards and requires safety equipment on all boats sold.

Bird Ban Disbanded

Buyer Beware For Odometer Mileage Roll-Back Schemes

SACRAMENTO — The California Department of Motor Vehicles, in an effort to stop used car dealers from rolling back odometers, will ask the state's vehicle owners to report the current mileage on their autos during re-registration this year.

During the past 12 months the DMV has received some 255 complaints of odometer tampering and has stepped up its campaign against unscrupulous auto dealers.

Special Investigator for the DMV Henry Hoover said the Department has found tampering cases throughout the state many involving unaware dealers as well as consumers.

"Our investigations have disclosed many licensed auto dealers have unknowingly purchased vehicles from wholesalers or others who are involved in the odometer roll back scheme," said Hoover. "The vehicles are sold to the public and, of course, it's the consumer who is the victim."

Hoover said one scheme involved the transportation into California of out of state vehicles and then selling them to dealers as low mileage.

The DMV said consumers in the market for a car may phone or write in the license number and receive the mileage reading for 75 cents.

Also the DMV reiterated failure to report the mileage would draw traffic citations against the registered owner of the vehicle.

Motorists who believe they have purchased vehicles with incorrect odometer readings are urged to call the DMV at 916-322-2497 or write the DMV Registration Division, Information and Histories Unit, P.O. Box 2747, Sacramento, CA 95812.

BoFA Wants Interest On Checking Accounts

One California bank is pushing the Federal Reserve Board to make mandatory a rule that depository banks pay interest on checking accounts.

Bank of America said last week the rest of the country should adopt the model of the banks in New England.

These banks pay interest on checking accounts to the tune of about 5 per cent.

Bank of America plans petitioning the Federal Reserve Board to make the New England bank policy national.
